OHHKAY!

MODEL INTERVIEW: KAY SIVILAY

KAY SIVILAY IS HOT AND SPICY, KINDA LIKE THE THAI FOOD HER COUNTRY IS KNOWN FOR. SHE'S THE HOMIE YOU SEE AROUND THE WAY THAT JUST HAPPENS TO BE A FINE-ASS MODEL. SHE'S EVERY GIRL'S LITTLE SISTER AND EVERY GUY'S PERFECT GIRLFRIEND. HER TRIPLE THREAT OF BRAINS (UCLA STATUS), BODY (A SMALL PACKAGE THAT PACKS THE PERFECT AMOUNT OF WEIGHT IN ALL THE RIGHT PLACES), AND LOOKS (AN ALLURING, INVITING SMILE THAT SAYS "COME OVER AND TALK TO ME, I WON'T SHOOT YOU DOWN;" EYES SO SEDUCTIVE NAVY SEALS WOULD TAKE DOWN THEIR OWN MEN) WILL HAVE YOU BY YOUR BALLS. NOT ONLY IS THIS PLAYBOY CYBERGIRL SMARTER THAN THE AVERAGE BARE, AND A HOT EXOTIC, SHE'S ONLY HAD ABOUT A WHIRLWIND THREE MONTHS OF PROFESSIONAL MODELING UNDER HER BELT AND SHE DOESN'T MIND POSING NUDE—WE DIDN'T ASK HER TO BECAUSE WE'RE PROFESSIONALS; PLUS, WE'RE SHY.

2NR: So what nationality are you?

KS: I'm Thai.

2NR: Wow, with your looks and your last name I thought you were Filipino.

KS: Yeah I was lucky my mom kept her maiden name.

2NR: Thai names would be rough in school I have a friend with a last name that doesn't stop; something like Songsamalongsong. My Filipino friend Julie is a teacher; she has her students call her Mrs. "C." Where are you from in L.A.?

KS: The Carson/Torrence area. I went to a math and science magnet school. I was geeky—but was a homecoming princess! Yeah, don't let the looks fool you. I got to wear a tiara!

2NR: Ain't nothing like a fine girl with a brain—a princess even! You're pretty young, is there a reason why you didn't get into the car scene sooner?

KS: I was just so focused with school.

2NR: Computer Club! Computer Club! "Oh no! I'm gonna be late for class. I'm gonna be taaardyyyy!"

KS: I got really good grades but I'm not the kind of student that can go out and party and still pull straight "A"'s. I really had to work hard and study. I've only been to one car show and the reason was to meet someone from Import Tuner to try to get a photo shoot. That person wasn't even there! I met a person that asked if I was a model. I said no but I said that I wanted to be in Playboy. He downplayed it with lines like "Ya know, it's really hard to get in. You have to look like this...blah blah blah;" I stayed a total of 20 minutes. The next time I saw him I said guess what? I got into Playboy!

2NR: So I heard you are going to school?

KS: True. When I was accepted to UCLA I planned to be a Pre-Med student. I wanted to become a dermatologist. I took some time to work so I could save up for tuition. So I took an entry-level money management job at a healthcare facility. I went from data entry to money management really quick.

2NR: Oh, Kay. Who were you flirting with?

KS: No! No! No! I'm a really hard worker! My co-workers were shocked when they found out I was modeling. I don't socialize at work too much. I'm square. Anyway, I wanted to go to school and have my own practice but I didn't see that happening before I was 30. I want to have kids someday and don't want to be an old mom so I changed my major to Business. So I went to San Diego to get my degree and modeling popped up. I've been fortunate.

2NR: How long have you been modeling?

KS: I started taking modeling seriously June of 2003; so about 3 months. I've done a lot lately. I'm grateful for modeling. I wouldn't be able to have so many cool experiences—cool parties! Tomorrow I'll be going to the party for the Matrix 3. Hopefully I get to meet Keanu Reeves! I'll bring my digital to document all this! I like seeing and meeting new people. I kept in touch with a lot of the people that I've crossed paths. My email address book is full! I enjoy meeting models that are genuinely nice—I've met a handful of those.

2NR: So...you've got the cover of 2NR under your belt but you've also got Playboy up in there too I see. Were you totally nude?

KS: No, I had lingerie on. Okay, pretty much nude. But I had on jewelry and rings and stuff! I did a CyberGirl pictorial. They kinda extended my contract so they can use me in some more stuff. They asked me to go from CyberGirl to special editions. I'll be in "Book of Lingerie," "Exotic Beauties," and "Nudes."

2NR: I take it you don't have a problem being nude.

KS: You mean today?

2NR: Yeah. Right now. (Long pause. I exchange my poker face for her confused look.) Ok, no. I mean for Playboy.

KS: I don't have a problem being nude just as long as it's classy. Plus I'm a fan and a subscriber AND an admirer of Playboy so it would be even lesser of a deal. I'm actually kinda hyped over it. What's weird is that, from reading each issue, I knew all the models by name; their month—I could name them and their stats off one by one—and now I'm friends with some of them.

2NR: Wow. You're a stalker—a low-level type stalker!

KS: No! I'm just a fan.

2NR: Who's your favorite Playmate?

KS: I like the 1997 Playmate of the Year. Karen McDougal.

2NR: You can remember six years back?

KS: I told you I'm a fan. Are you quizzing me?!?! Don't quiz me!

2NR: Quick...the Playmate for 2000?

KS: Jodi Ann Patterson.

2NR: My God! 2002?

KS: Darlene Curtis.

2NR: Which one was a 2NR model?

KS: Kitana Baker—She is the 2003 Playmate of the year.

2NR: Damn. Quick. Which one would you make out with?

KS: Jodi Ann Patterson. She's the bomb! She went to school and got a B.A. She's beautiful but grounded. It's more about her personality and her accomplishments. I think that's attractive.

2NR: What makes YOU attractive?

KS: People tell me it's my personality. Some think that your typical model is snobby

MODEL INTERVIEW: KAY SIVILAY

but I'm not like that.

2NR: Tell me you are single.

KS: His name is Jason.

2NR: Damn, our editor? Does he know? Just kidding. So, this small speed bump must be the reason you're at San Diego State and not UCLA.

KS: This "speed bump" is a big guy. He was going to play tail-back for the Oakland Raiders but he hurt his knees. We've been together for over 4 years. He's from New York, my number one fan and I'm the reason why he's not going back! Just kidding. I couldn't survive the winters there, much less the summers!

2NR: Oh so your super-human is 6' 12" with the strength of four horses and regularly rescues babies out of burning buildings and all that stuff? Anyway, the weather sucks over there. Been traveling lately?

KS: I went to Tahiti for five days! I was there for a shoot but I was so lonely.

2NR: Wipe your tears. It's a free trip!

KS: It was nice being around honeymooners but I was experiencing all of it by myself. No friends. No family. No boyfriend. Don't get me wrong, I do stuff by myself all the time but it would have been nice to share such a spectacular time with another person. Like this whole three month modeling adventure, for example, I'm just a regular person and all these life changes are happening so quickly—my support group of friends and family make it so much better and easier to deal with; they make it fun.

2NR: What type of guys are you most attracted too?

KS: I like a guy who has a good sense of humor. One whose not uptight; secure with himself; who likes being active and like to take care of himself. A guy who's fit. He's gotta know how to treat a woman right. Someone who's not a male chauvinist. I like a guy that opens doors—a little chivalry goes a long way. I like it when you can sit together and not say a word. That's the best. That's when you know you have a friend. It's someone you can kick it with—straining to keep a conversation alive? Not good.

2NR: Seems like you know what you want. That's mature for 24.

KS: I think I'm a little more mature because I learned, through my sisters, a lot faster than everyone else my age. I'm the youngest out of five girls. I saw their ups and downs. My sisters paved the way for me—and yes, they're all taken.

2NR: Whatever. Next question. What about some of the things that turn you off?

KS: Perverts and guys that talk about themselves—it's easy to tell when they're bullshitting. I can't stand those kinds of guys.

2NR: Guys that bullshit seem to get more girls.

KS: True.

2NR: Is collecting porn perverted?

KS: Excuse me. What was that?

2NR: I said I've sworn not to be perverted. Ewww, pervs!

KS: There's a way to approach and complement a girl. If a guy comes up and starts off looking at you up and down saying, "Damn girl, what's up with you?" I can tell you right now that I'm not gonna be talking to you; I already know where the mind is at. But if a person comes up and says, "Hey I just wanted to let you know that you look really good and your shots came out great." for me that's more genuine. Otherwise it seems like you're going to pounce on me and I don't like that.

2NR: What's life after modeling?

KS: My plan is to go back to school and get a Public Relations degree. I plan to be a mother of three kids someday... one of these days. Before the Tahiti shoot I tried out for an acting job. It was for an HBO series called Emmanuel. I didn't think I was going to get an offer because my reading was so rookie; as if I was reading for a part in the 8th grade. When I got back they offered me the part but I had to turn it down. They required simulated love scenes. Like soft porn! I would never ever do any porn!

2NR: I think you may have disappointed half our readers.

KS: Sorry guys. I didn't think that the Emmanuel series was going to be "Halle-Berry-Monster's Ball-Oscar status. Doing the piece was going to be career defining. I know I have my website and everything but I'm still going to be careful about the parts that I choose. Maybe I'll go the acting route but it's not something I'm dying to achieve.

2NR: And now you're here for the big money—the 2NR cover shoot! Yeah. Gimme that high five. I've seen what you'll be wearing for the shoot and you look nice with what you've got on right now, but what do you wear when you're chillin' at home?

KS: Actually, I usually just wear a tank top and panties—or I'll wear like a nightie.

2NR: Okay. Give me a quick second to savor that thought.

KS: Not the nightie you're imagining—perv—it's more like a long shirt that...

2NR: Shhhh...stop talking. You're ruining the picture. What's your hottie gear look like?

KS: It looks kind of like that (She points to a frilly "Ariba! Ariba!" themed top that's designed to expose everything below her C cups.)

2NR: Do you have any special names for any of your body-parts?

KS: I named my boobs.

2NR: Oh that's not interesting at all, but I'll bite. What are the names of your boobs?

KS: Karen (pointing to the right one) and Sharon (pointing to the left one).

2NR: Let me get this right. Let's see, this one (closely pointing) this one is Carin' and this one (closely pointing) is Sharin'. Wait. Let me do that again...

KS: Enough. I think you've got it.

2NR: Right. With a top like that ya gotta have...a nice, uh, tummy. Do you work out a lot? Let me see them guns(She pulls up her arm, flexes her bicep, and a lump, the size of a small mouse, grows to prove her point). Damn! I guess you do.

KS: I used to go to the gym four times a week but lately I'll be lucky to sneak in a couple days. It helps that my boyfriend was a bodybuilder in New York.

2NR: Enough already with the superstar boyfriend thing. Now what are your strongest qualities?

KS: I think I understand people. People can confide in me and I think I can give good advice.

2NR: Are you mean?

KS: I'm NEVER mean.

2NR: What's with the attitude?! You looked me up and down and did the "Uh, uh. Whatever girlfriend!" neck and hand thing.

KS: Here's the thing: I'm so friendly to everyone but if you piss me off you'll see steam coming out of my ears.

2NR: That could mean that you're H-O-T, HOT. Hot like fire!

KS: Ya know, when I was younger I'd be all up in your face.

I had big balls. I had older sisters for back up.

2NR: I wouldn't thank them for big balls. I do think the 'tude came from the Carson, Cali roots.

KS: It might be!

2NR: Well, I saw the neck and the hand. And everyone knows that the hand blocks everything! We're done.
